MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Angus MacLean Thuermer
Assistant to the Director

SUBJECT : Washington Press Club Speech

Milton Jacques of the Washington Press Club called to tell me that your talk on Monday, May 10 at 12:15 p.m. in the Sheraton-Carlton basement rooms (buffet), would be a "members only" meeting. That means that those persons who are there will be working press; they will not be bringing along maiden aunts who might be in town or Buster Brown or Sister Sue.

I said I did not know if you had decided on a subject yet. This did not disturb him.

Recall Jacques once said that if TV members requested, television cameras can come in. These sessions are on the record. Q&A can be expected. This club originally was women only; not so now.

For Monday's Washington Press club appearance: I propose to send with you . She'll also have the little tape recorder.

New subject:

If, on a regular basis, we got a forward look at your schedule in this office, we might be able to help you better. I'm thinking of the Houston-San Antonio trip, with press angles in both towns. Although a letter you sent out tipped me to the visit, we didn't know of press conference, speech, etc., until we learned of this from other end, i.e., Houston and San Antonio.
